

Love the All Blacks? Live the dream

ARE you Hamilton's Number One All Black Family? The MasterCard All Blacks Roadshow is on the road again and is looking for Hamilton's Number One All Blacks Family.

The roadshow will be driving into Hamilton on September 12 along with past and present All Blacks. So, in preparation for its arrival, the search is on for Hamilton's Number One All Black Family.

The winning family will receive a prize package including the chance to get up close to some All Blacks, have your photograph taken with them at the MasterCard All Blacks Roadshow and four tickets to the Waikato Stadium All Blacks v Springboks test on September 12, including watching the haka from the sideline. You will also feature in a story about your MasterCard All Blacks Roadshow experience which will be printed in Hamilton Press

For more information details about the MasterCard All Blacks Roadshow visit <http://www.mastercardroadshow.co.nz> or keep an eye on Hamilton Press.

About the Roadshow

As passionate supporters of the

All Blacks, MasterCard has created this fantastic free event as a way to bring an All Blacks experience to communities.

The MasterCard All Blacks Roadshow features five rugby challenges that aim to give fans the chance to see what it is like to be an All Black and test themselves against the All Blacks' scores and ex-All Black and rugby legend Buck Shelford.

Fans can test themselves in the following challenges:

- Catching a high ball
- Pushing over for a try
- Passing left and right
- Throwing into a lineout

Place kicking a goal from a variety of angles

If you are a family of die-hard All Black fans and absolutely dedicated to the team, tell us why in 100 words or less.

Send, fax or email your entry with daytime phone number, to: MasterCard All Blacks Roadshow Hamilton's Number One All Black Family Competition, The Editor, Hamilton Press, Private Bag 3086, Hamilton; fax 07 849-9640 or email sue.elliott@wrcn.co.nz.
