

Fans meet All Blacks

Dedicated rugby fans, young and old, toughed out cold wet weather to meet their favourite All Blacks last weekend.

More than 200 children and their parents gathered at Caroline Bay for four hours on Sunday when the MasterCard All Blacks Roadshow rolled into town.

All Blacks Kieran Read and George Whitelock and former skipper Buck Shelford were among those who were travelling with the roadshow last week.

Snap happy: Fans take photos of the All Blacks travelling with the roadshow last weekend.

Rugby fanatic: Alastair Eddie, 12, puts his skills to the test during the All Blacks roadshow.

Snap shot: Buck Shelford takes time out to get his photo taken with brothers Luca, 4, and Finlay, 6.

Aiming high: Connor McKay-McManus, 9, takes part in one of the activities on offer during the All Blacks roadshow.

Team player: Buck Shelford with young fans Bridey Flynn, left, and her brother Tom.

